

High Roller

Lyrics: Darlene Olson Music: Dan St. Pierre

When I walked... out this time
You had told me it was fine
To go on with my life
So I made up my mind.....

Never would I try again
As your wife or as your friend
Now I know just what it's been
Living in your world of sin.....
Cause you're a high roller
You need a shot of high roller

Every-time I turn around
I see nothing but a frown
Upon your face....
When I see you looking back
I just want to hit or slap
You in the face.....

Never would I try again
As your wife or as your friend
Now I know just what it's been
Living in your world of sin.....
Cause you're a high roller
You need a shot of high roller
