

Piano in Heaven

Lyrics: Darlene Olson

Music: Dan St. Pierre

When I die, I hope there's a piano in heaven
So I won't have to rent or borrow one
At five o'clock when music shops are closing
At least up there I'll make the final run

When I die, I hope there's lead players in heaven
So I won't have to bring my own guitar
There'll be someone there who'll play the music for me
And all I'll have to do is sing my songs

Chorus

When I die I'm goin' to heaven...
To see the music friends I've lost
They'll know I'm coming out to see them...
When they hear the final drum

Lead

When I die I hope there's a drummer in heaven
To help keep time so I can carry on Cause I don't think I'd make it far in heaven
Without a beat to help me sing my songs

Chorus

When I die I'm goin' to heaven...
To see the music friends I've lost
They'll know I'm coming out to see them...
When they hear the final drum
